In the United States District Court
For the District of Oregon
Portland Division

Ebrahim Wahab, Plaintiff,

v.

Saima Wahab, Defendant.

Case no: 3:23-cv-00098-SB

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO PERMIT
REMOTE INTERPRETATION SERVICES

Acknowledgment:

Plaintiff in case# (3:23-cv-00098-SB) is hereby submitting AMENDED Lay Witness List In compliance with Document #54, "CIVIL TRIAL MANAGEMENT ORDER" (01/12/2023).

The plaintiff is aware of the tardiness of this filing. Although it is no excuse, plaintiff seeks the pardon off the court and begs for the court to admit this Motion to Permit Remote Interpretation Services.

According to the rule of FRCP 43, plaintiff in this case seek to have the Courts permission to provide in person or remote interpretation during the testimonies of some of the witnesses during the trial.

Remote or local interpretation services

In the past Naegeli Deposition and Trial Services have been able to provide such services to the plaintiff and should be able to acquire and to satisfy the court's demands for the qualified Pashto and English interpreter. Plaintiff will seek to acquire at minimum a qualified remote interpreter for the testimonies of Mrs. Saira Wahab and may be Mrs. Gul Pari Wahab. In the past Naegeli Deposition and Trial Services have been able to provide such services to plaintiff.

Qualified Pashto interpreter must be a native speaker.
